ST. PETER’S HOSPITAL

AWARDS AND ACCOLADES

- Magnet®-designated organization (for the third consecutive time) by the American Nurses Credentialing Center® (ANCC) Magnet Recognition Program®
- Accredited Chest Pain Center with Primary PCI by the American College of Cardiology
- Nurses Improving Care for Health system Elders – first hospital in the Capital Region to officially implement program
- Accredited a Blue Distinction Center for Maternity Care and Cancer Care by Blue Shield of Northeastern New York
- Nationally Accredited Breast Center (NAPBC) by the American College of Surgeons
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit Silver Beacon Award; Coronary Care Unit Silver Beacon Award; Cardiovascular Intensive Care Unit Silver Beacon Award for Excellence by American Association of Critical-Care Nurses
- First hospital in the Capital Region to receive Baby-Friendly designation, considered the gold standard in maternity care, launched by the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United Nations Children’s Fund (UNICEF)
- SPH Cardiovascular Rehabilitation Program certified by American Association of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation (AACVPR)
- Accredited as a Comprehensive, Community-based Cancer Care program by the American College of Surgeons Commission on Cancer® (since 1985)

Reflects awards, honors and accreditations as current as June 2018.